THE RAILROADS

Complete changes in the time of departure of cars on the C., D. & M. Electric company were effective today. The new schedule is the same as used prior to April 4, 1921 and provides for sixteen cars daily through to Columbus, the same number as at present. Two cars will leave at 10 o'clock and 11 o'clock in the evening for Delaware.

Under the new schedule the first local car in the morning will leave Marion at 6 o'clock and another will leave each two hours until 8 p. m. A local will leave for Columbus at 9 o'clock in the evening and is the last through car. The limiteds will leave at 7:20 o'clock in the morning and each two hours thereafter until 7:20 o'clock in the evening. The schedules are effective daily only. On Sundays and holidays all cars, beginning at 6 o'clock in the morning and until 9 o'clock at night, are run as locals. This is the same as at present.

The time required at present for running from Marion to Columbus is one hour and fifty minutes for limiteds and two hours and twenty minutes for locals. Company officials indicated today that within the next thirty days there might be another change in time which would reduce the running time of the locals down to two hours and five minutes.

For the next eighteen months, the C., D. & M. cars will enter Columbus over the present route, down High street to the north car barns and then east to Indianola and Summit streets. After that date the cars probably will turn east at some point north of Worthington, running on the company tracks.

As most of the despatchers and telegraphers lived in Galion, the Erie ran an engine and one coach for employes from Marion to Galion making the trip about every three hours. The train was nicknamed the "Loupurex" after the name given to the special train which was run to the Louisana Purchase exposition. The first two operators on the second trick, March 4, 1912, at Marion were Milton Welch, present chief despatcher on the Cincinnati division, and Charles B. Mechel, at present employed in the Hornell region of the Erie. "Unless special information is given this provision there are going to be many penalties for failure to comply through ignorance on the part of those affected," he added.

The work here has been so great that it has been absolutely impossible for Mr. Harmount to take care of all persons applying for assistance. He has requested the addition of another agent to the force and experts to have come here to help him in the next few days.

Probing Painesville Disaster.

Cleveland, March 7.—The Ohio state public utilities commission opened an official investigation at Painesville into the collision there between a New York Central express train and an automobile bus Friday night which resulted in 16 deaths. The hearing was conducted behind closed doors. The entire crew of the train was questioned and it is understood that the testimony given at the coroner's inquest Saturday—that A. W. Barnes, crossing watchman, was at his post and warned Andrew Adams, driver of the bus, in ample time to have averted the tragedy—was repeated.

MISS RUTH BARTRAM WEDS ROY GOTTSCHALL

Ceremony Is Said at Bartram Home Monday Evening.

SINGLE RING SERVICE BY DR. L. L. STROCK

Couple Goes to New York City. Will Reside at No. 271 Summit Street.

One of the pretty weddings of the season was solemnized Monday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Bartram, No. 402 south State street, when their daughter, Miss Ruth Bartram, became the bride of Mr. Roy W. Gottschall, son of Mrs. H. J. Lower, of No. 271 Summit street.

The single ring service was spoken at 7:45 o'clock by Dr. Lincoln L. Strock, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, in the presence of a company of friends and relatives. The ceremony took place in the living room of the Bartram home before a brick of palms, ferns and primroses, and southern smilax transformed the rooms into bowers of greenery.

Sister Maid of Honor.

The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Esther Bartram, as maid of honor and her cousin, Miss Helen Kramer, of this city, Miss Mildred Wood, of Springfield, and Miss Susan Garberson, of Hagerstown, Maryland, as bridesmaids. J. Mackin Perkins, of Philadelphia, served Mr. Gottschall as best man. Mr. Perkins and Mr. Gottschall are school friends, fraternity brothers and served overseas together.

Miss Anne Katherine Bartram, of Columbus, Mr. John Kline Bartram, sister and brother of the bride, and Miss Elizabeth Lauer and Roland Lauer, of Logan, niece and nephew of the groom, served as ribbon bearers, while little Miss Lola Mae Lauer, of Logan, and Miss Betty Grace Kramer, of Cleveland, carried the bride's train.

The bride was given in marriage by her father and the members of the wedding party took their places before the altar as the wedding march from Lohengrin was played by Miss Clara Leffler, of this city, violinist, accompanied on the piano by Mrs. C. F. Lauer, of Logan. Miss Leffler and Mrs. Lauer entertained with a group of numbers preceding the ceremony.

White Crepe Satin Gown.

The bride wore a wedding gown of white crepe satin. The bodice was lattiked with pearls, with a Brussels point lace collar and the train was lined with silver cloth and trimmed with tiny white satin flowers. The veil, which was of tulle, was caught with a coronet of Bohemian point lace beaded with pearls. She carried an arm bouquet of pink rosebuds, lilies of the valley and ferns.

Miss Esther Bartram, as maid of honor, wore a gown of blue georgette and a corsage of pink roses. The bridesmaids wore gowns of pink georgette and carried bouquets of pink roses.

Following the ceremony a wedding dinner was served, the guests being seated at tables prettily decorated in smilax and baskets of pink primroses and ferns. Covers were laid for the bridal party, the guests assembling in the living room and the bridal party in the dining room. Miss Martha Bartram and Miss Dorothy Snyder.

Misses Nelle, Isabel and Dale Freer and Miss Stella Van Horn assisted in entertaining the guests this evening. The guests were assisted by Albert Lauer and Miss Mary Dawson and Ben Zendt, aided by others.

Go To New York City.

Mr. and Mrs. Gottschall left last night on a wedding trip of two days to New York City and upon their return will make their home at No. 271 Summit street. The bride's traveling suit was of tan silk velvet hat to match.

Mrs. Gottschall is one of Marion's most charming young women and for the past seven and one-half years has been employed as a teacher in the public schools. She is a graduate of Harding High school, class of 1913, and also a former student of Ohio Wesleyan and Columbia universities. Besides she is a member of the Woman's Century club and of the Daughters of the American Revolution.

Mr. Gottschall is a graduate of the Harding High school, class of 1912, and also of Ohio State university, class of 1916. Fraternally he is affiliated with the Phi Gamma Delta, Sigma Delta Phi and Scottish Rite Masons. He served as a lieutenant in the artillery and air service overseas and was at the giant headquarters at the air service center at Issoudun, France. Mr. Gottschall is with the Marion Buick company.

Out-of-town guests attending the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Lauer and children, Roland, Elizabeth and Lola Mae of Logan; Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Denver Williams, of Wilmington; Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Kramer and daughter, Betty Grace, of Cleveland; Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Bartram and daughter, Anne Katherine, of Columbus; Mrs. Scott Allison Willits, of Chicago; Mrs. J. A. Sinnott and son, John, of Dayton; Miss Mildred Wood, of Springfield, and Mr. J. MacKin Perkins, of Philadelphia.

TREATY DEFEAT BECKONS WAR

Senator Lodge Says in Speech of Intensity.

WILL PUT NEW LIFE INTO THE ANGLO-JAP TREATY

Defeat To Mean Failure of the Arms Conference.

Treaties Fail, Outlook Will Be Dark Indeed, He Tells Senators—America Will Be a Hermit Nation in Future.

Washington, March 8.—Senator Henry Cabot Lodge warned the United States senate today that if it rejects the four-power Pacific treaty, it gives renewed life in the Anglo-Japanese alliance, beckons to the grim possibility of war and destroys the entire works of the arms conference.

Speaking with an intensity unusual for him, Senator Lodge defended the entire lot of conference treaties as well as the course pursued by the American delegates in the conference and declared that senate rejection would leave a "shocked and startled world," still menaced by the horrors of 1914-1918.

"The defeat of the four-power treaty would mean the failure of the conference," declared Lodge.

"Let there be no illusion on that point."

In Entire Accord.

The American delegates, Secretary Hughes, Elihu Root, Senator Underwood and himself were in entire accord, Lodge said, for a month before and during the conference on what should be accomplished.

"We were clearly of the opinion," he said, "that there lay before us three great objectives. One was the termination of the Anglo-Japanese alliance. The next was an agreement between the five powers for a reduction of naval armament. The third was to accomplish all that was possible to aid China in the establishment of a free and independent government and particularly to secure the restoration of the great province of Shantung to the Chinese empire to which it rightfully belonged.

"We succeeded in attaining all the objects. The treaty now before us terminates the Anglo-Japanese alliance. I think the obligation to meet and consult is the only obligation existing in this treaty.

"It is sufficient to say that in my judgment the Anglo-Japanese alliance was the most dangerous element in our relations with the Far East and with Pacific. There is no likeness between the alliance and this treaty.

"The removal of the Anglo-Japanese alliance made it possible to bring about a reduction of naval armament. While the alliance existed a reduction of naval armament was difficult if not impractical. Senators should bear in mind that the defeat of the four-powered treaty would embitter the naval limitation treaty and failure of the naval treaty would shock and startle the world and bitterly disappoint the American people."

The Republican leader painted a dark picture of the world war and the possibility of the world being again subjected to its menace if the treaties and works were nullified by the senate.

"The miseries and horrors of the great war," he said, "must never come again if we can do anything to prevent."

He said he hoped, with this purpose, that the conference met. I consider it only a beginning.

Must Remove Suspicion.

It is the custom to preach suspicion and hatred of all other nations. We decline to deal with them and declare that we are all actuated by the worst of motives, nothing can ever be done.

But if we are right in thinking that men and women alike have learned the lesson of the war, then much can be accomplished by the conference assembled in Washington and the doors will stand open for further attempts to breed a larger and more forebearing spirit among the nations of the earth.

"I see from this outlook for the future dark indeed. The best hope of the world for future peace and the people of the United States, for whom I can hope to succeed? [illegible] the conference, we [illegible] treaties and agreements. Are we to stumble and fall on the threshold of the undertaking [illegible] we abandoned and brought to naught? Are we to sink back in [illegible] a prey to dark passions, a hermit nation, armed

The betrothal has been announced from Copenhagen by King Christian and Queen Alexandria, of Denmark. The date of the wedding has not been announced. WILSON JOINS TREATY FOES

Writes Letter to Borah on the Pacific Pact.

BELIEVES TREATY IS AN ALLIANCE

Existence of Letter Creates a Sensation.

Idaho Senator and Former President Find Common Ground To Wage Fight on the Arms Conference Treaties.

Washington, March 8.—Woodrow Wilson and Senator William E. Borah have joined forces to defeat ratification of the four-powered Pacific treaty.

Both believe that the treaty is an alliance of four powers and as such is dangerous to the interests of the United States and both will leave no stone unturned to prevent its acceptance by the senate.

From his quiet home in S street, where he has silently observed the course of events for the last year, Woodrow Wilson has written a letter to the Idaho "irreconcilable" outlining his reasons for believing the treaty to be an "iniquitous" alliance of the strong.

Writes to Senator.

Not only has Mr. Wilson communicated with Senator Borah, by letter, but he has also had his views explained to the Idaho senator through Bernard M. Baruch and others who have visited the S street home since the close of the armament conference.

The letter has not been made public and probably will not be, but its existence is well nown to Senator Lodge, the Republican party leader, who so far has been able to line up only a handful of the Democrats in support of the pact.

As explained by opponents of the treaty, the analogy between the attitude of Mr. Wilson and that of Senator Borah toward the treaty is as follows:

First—Both are against "alliances."

Second—Both regard the four-power treaty distinctly as an alliance.

Third—Wilson is opposed to alliances for two reasons. (A) Because they have been a prolific source of war in the past; (B) Because special alliances like the one the treaty provides for necessarily destroy the possibility of a real league of nations.

Denounces Alliances.

Fourth—Wilson has always denounced alliances and one of the great objects of the league was to destroy alliances.

Fifth—Borah agrees with Wilson that alliances are dangerous things

DAVIS ACTS TO AVERT STRIKE

Secretary of Labor Confers on Coal Situation.

SILENT REGARDING STEPS TO BE TAKEN

Federation Officials Watching Developments.

Put Strike Up to Coal Barons. General Walkout in Southwestern Fields Appears Certain Today, Wire Advises.

Washington, March 8.—With the strike vote of the bituminous coal miners rising higher and higher, the administration today renewed its efforts to bring about a conference between the operators and miners to avert the threatened strike on April 1.

Secretary of Labor Davis conferred during the day with his aides who are familiar with the soft coal situation. Beyond saying that he hoped to bring about the desired conference, Secretary Davis was silent regarding the steps that are being taken to bring the two groups together. The menace of a soft coal strike, which is daily growing greater, is causing concern in official circles and Secretary Davis is expected to bring strong pressure to bear on the operators to agree to a conference.

Watch Developments.

In the meantime, officials of the American Federation of Labor are keeping a close watch on developments.

"The coal barons are responsible if the mining of coal ceases," a federation official asserted today.

"Why not abandon the talk of 'miners' strike and discuss a lockout by the coal owners?"

General Strike Looms.

Kansas City, March 8.—A general coal strike in the southwestern fields appeared certained today when operators announced open defiance to the threat by miners to strike on April 1 if wages are reduced.

The Southwestern Interstate Coal Operators' association announced that not only would wages be reduced but "cut to the bone."

Vote Favors Strike.

Columbus, March 8. — The referendum vote taken this week by Ohio union coal miners, overwhelmingly favoring a strike April 1 if the coal operators continue their insistence upon wage reductions, "brings to mind the picture of a man sitting on a limb of a tree and sawing it off," declared W. D. McKinney, Columbus, secretary of the Southern Ohio Coal exchange, today.

"Adoption of the wage scale and working conditions, as demanded by the United Mine Workers, will mean nothing short of ruin to southern Ohio," continued Secretary McKinney.

"The action taken by the Southern Ohio miners — favoring a strike — was naturally to be expected because southern Ohio has always been most loyal to the United Mine Workers' organization. However, we are still in hopes that the national organization will be as loyal to the best interest of the miners of southern Ohio as these miners are to the national organization and that the miners will not be expected to suffer because of their loyalty.

Not To Affect Public Attitude.

"No vote that may be taken that means a continuation of the present wage scale base with a five day week and a six hour day and which means an increase of twenty-five per cent. in labor cost, will change the attitude of the public toward values nor take away from the purchasers of coal the inherent province to buy where they can bargain best.

"West Virginia and Kentucky mines have had no better friend than the United Mine Workers of America who have created markets for the West Virginia coal beyond any possible expectation. Miners voting strongest for continuation of present conditions are generally employed in mines that have worked the largest percentage of time during the past year and these mines have been producing coal upon contracts which expire April 1 and which can not and will not, be renewed on the present wage scale," declared Secretary McKinney.

Peasants On Warpath.

London, March 8.—Peasants in Crimea, maddened by hunger and suffering, have gone upon the warpath, according to an Exchange Telegraph despatch from Helsingfors today. They are wrecking houses and looting shops. The cities are being attacked.

THIS HANDSOME MEMORIAL TO FORMER PRESIDENT GRANT TO BE UNVEILED IN BOTANICAL GARDENS IN WASHINGTON

A great memorial to former President Grant will be unveiled in the Botanical gardens at Washington, on April 27, marking the culmination of twenty years of work by the designer and sculptor, Henry Merwin Shrady, of New York, whose father, Dr. George F. Shrady, attended the famous military leader up to the time of his death. The work is pyramidal in outline, with all the minor figures and groups sweeping up to General Grant, astride his horse, in the center of the memorial. The complete work is one of the most beautiful ever conceived.

SOLONS TO PASS BONUS MEASURE

In Spite of President's Demand for Sales Tax.

BELIEVE EXECUTIVE WILL NOT VETO IT

Republican Leaders Say All of Conditions Are Met.

Chairman Fordney Believes the President Will Approve the Bill as Finally Drafted by the Senate Committee.

Washington, March 8. — In the face of the implied warning that President Harding is opposed to the completed soldier bonus bill now pending in the house because it does not provide for a sales tax to raise the necessary money, Republican leaders were determined to pass the measure in its present form. They do not believe that the president will veto the bill after it gets through congress.

It was pointed out today that the original bonus requirements of the president were that.

First—There should be no re-enactment of repealed taxes on excess profits.

Second—That the treasury should not be called upon to meet a heavy draft for cash payments, and.

Third—That interest received on the foreign debt in the United States should not be used.

All Conditions Met.

Republican leaders of the house declare that all of these conditions have been met in the present bill for it takes less than $16,000,000 out of the treasury, levies no additional taxes and makes no provision for the use of foreign bonds.

Chairman Fordney, of the house ways and means committee, is in Peoria, Illinois, today, but before leaving Washington he expressed the belief that President Harding would approve the bonus bill as finally drafted by the committee. Representatives Longworth, Frear and Wilson, leading Republicans of the ways and means committees, declared today that while they did not know the president's mind, they were doubtful if he would oppose the bill despite the committee's flat rejection of the sales tax.

It is expected that the bill will be passed by the house early next week. The ways and means committee probably will lay the measure before the house on Saturday.

PRESIDENT LEAVES FOR FLORIDA TODAY

St. Augustine To Be First Stop of Executive.

Washington, March 8.—President Harding probably will leave Washington late this afternoon for a ten-day vacation trip to Florida.

The president plans to go first to St. Augustine.

No engagements were on the White House calendar for today.

PAYS TO HUMANIZE FEDERAL PRISONS

Washington, March 8.—It pays to "humanize" the federal prisons.

So thinks Attorney General Daugherty, who today pointed to these results in one year:

One thousand paroled prisoners who have earned $1,000,000 and are again useful members of society.

Productive endeavor created through the government's policy of aiding them has helped to cut the cost of prison operations $77,000 below the appropriations.

MICHIGAN CITY STILL BURNING

Three Lives Are Snuffed Out in Cheboygan Blaze.

LOSS THUS FAR ABOUT ONE MILLION DOLLARS

Block After Block Engulfed in Fiery Flood.

Residences in Peril If the Wind Shifts—Appeals for Assistance Are Sent to Several of Surrounding Cities.

Cheboygan, Mich., March 8. —A man and a boy were burned to death and the central part of Cheboygan's business section was reduced to ruins in a fire which started in the Frost Kessler block today and swept north on Main street, defying all efforts of firemen, who have finally abandoned the fight and limited their efforts to saving surrounding property.

Should the wind shift in any direction the blaze would be carried to adjacent business and residence blocks, it was feared. The damage thus far was estimated at $1,000,000.

Miss Jeanette McDonald, telephone operator in the Bell exchange, leaped three stories to safety when the telephone offices were destroyed.

The dead are: Frank Hosler, baker, who entered his shop in an effort to save his effects, and Pete Laway, a boy, whose body is believed to be among the ruins.

Gain Irresistible Headway.

Borne on a strong south wind, the flames gained insuperable headway by the time the fire department arrived. The Frost Kessler block, housing most of the city's professional offices, was first to go. Powerless to check the flames, firemen moved slowly north and finally rallied at the Thompson department store, the city's largest business house, which is directly in front of the blaze.

The First National bank, Tonnell and Post hardware blocks, housing a score of business firms and private residences, followed the Frost-Kessler block in quick succession. So fierce were the flames that the fire fighters could not approach close enough to play their hose on the burning property.

Appeals for assistance were sent to surrounding towns and several cities have promised aid.

Death Toll Reaches Three.

Detroit, March 8.—The death toll at Cheboygan has reached three, according to a private message received here today by M. D. Olds, a resident of Cheboygan, guest at a local hotel.

The flames are now sweeping towards the Black river and there is little hope of checking the fire's progress short of that stream, according to information received by the local American Telephone and Telegraph company this afternoon by way of Duluth.

Hundreds of thousands of dollars worth of additional property is apparently doomed, local telephone people state.

Must Face Murder Charge.

Cincinnati, March 8. — James Reno, fifty, and Roy McKinney, thirty-nine, of Cincinnati, under arrest, at Wilmington, Ohio, on a charge of violation of the liquor law, also must answer a murder charge. The latter charge was placed against the prisoners last night after an investigation into the murder there of Emery McCreight, policeman, who was shot the night of February 14.

HIS INCOME TAX IS JUST ONE CENT

Cincinnati, March 8.—Cincinnati claims as a citizen the man who pays the smallest income tax. Late yesterday he filed returns showing his tax amounted to one cent, which he paid and received a receipt.

"HARMLESS" PACKAGE BLOWS OFF FINGERS

Cincinnati, March 8.—Three fingers were blown from the right hand of Silas Tunning, sixteen, who lives near Covington, Kentucky, last night when he picked up a bomb he thought was a harmless package.

BRYAN AROUSES WATSON'S IRE

Georgian Scathingly Attacks Commoner.

CHARGES HIM WITH GRANDSTAND PLAY

Adopts Same Tactics at the Close of War with Spain, He Declares.

Washington, March 8.—The entry of William Jennings Bryan, the "great commoner," into the four-power treaty fight, aroused a storm of condemnation today from Senator Tom Watson, Democrat, of Georgia. Watson charged Bryan with "grand-stanaling" and scathingly reviewed the commoner's war record of 1898. He also charged Bryan with attempting to "disrupt the Democratic ranks" to obtain a Republican treaty victory.

Feeling of Resentment.

"There is a feeling of resentment among Democratic senators that William J. Bryan should undertake to dictate to them their course of action on the four-power treaty," said Watson.

"It is remembered that after the Spanish-American war, Bryan took upon himself the task of creating disruption in the Democratic ranks with the purpose of swinging enough Democratic votes to insure a two-third majority required by the Republicans to ratify the Paris treaty. He is attempting the same thing now."

THREE PRIESTS EFFECT ESCAPE FROM FIRE

Blaze Destroys Mission House in Cincinnati.

Cincinnati, March 8. — Three priests narrowly escaped death this morning when fire damaged a mission house here.

Two of the clergymen were compelled to crawl through hallways and down stairs that were dense with smoke. Another saved his life by climbing through a window to a porch roof and then sliding down a post to the yard.

The priests were the Rev. T. A. Thill, Rev. F. A. Grosse, and Rev. R. N. Wagner.

Distillery Raided.

Frederick, Md., March 8.—The "Old Horsey" distillery, ten miles from here, was raided early today by a gang of bandits, operating a fleet of three motor trucks. The bandits overpowered, bound and gagged three government watchmen, loaded 2,199 gallons of whisky on the trucks and made their escape. A general alarm has been sent out.

NO EMBARGO ON ARMS TO MEXICO

Wilson Proclamation Not To Be Revived as Yet.

PRESIDENT OBREGON PLEASED WITH ACTION

Taken as Virtual Acknowledgement That Mexican Government Is Firmly Established.

Washington, March 8. — The American government will not re-establish at this time the embargo on the exportation of arms or munitions from the United States to Mexico which was terminated by the joint resolution of congress approved January 31, 1922, it was announced today at the state department.

Department officials declared that repeal of the embargo had met with no opposition from the Mexican government, and that President Alvero Obregon had expressed his satisfaction with the present situation.

The embargo was established by proclamation of Woodrow Wilson on July 12, 1919, under authority of a joint resolution of congress approved March 14, 1912.

Virtual Recognition.

The announcement of the state department was interpreted in certain circles here as indicative of the attitude of the American government toward Mexico. It was asserted that refusal to reestablish the embargo on arms was a virtual acknowledgement by the administration that President Obregon was firmly seated in office, and that there was no disturbances in Mexico which could be viewed as threatening his authority.

It was pointed out that under the resolution of congress January 31, 1922, which automatically lifted the embargo on arms in Mexico, it was provided that the President might impose the embargo whenever he found "that in any American country . . . conditions of domestic violence exist which are or may be promoted by the use of arms or munitions of war procured from the United States."

LIGHT IN WINDOW FOR MISSING GIRL

Cincinnati, March 8.—For two nights the front door at No. 2228 Harris avenue, Norwood, has remained unlatched and a light has been burning in the living room in the hope that Ivy Ward, seventeen, who disappeared from her home Monday, would return. Her mother is in a serious condition as a result of nervous prostration.

PLEASED WITH FARM OUTLOOK

President Expresses the Utmost Satisfaction.

WRITES LETTER TODAY TO EUGENE MEYER, JR.

Says Facts Cited Are Evidence of Prosperity.

Praises the Work of the War Finance Corporation and Urges a Square Deal for the Farmers of the Country.

Washington, March 8.—President Harding today in a letter to Eugene Meyer, Jr., managing director of the war finance corporation, expressed satisfaction with reports of increases in the prices of staple agricultural products and pointed out that "there can be no restoration of general business stability without the establishment of equitable relativity between the producers selling price and the cost to the consumer."

The president's letter was in reply to Meyer's report on the activities and accomplishments of the war finance corporation since its organization.

Farm Products Low; Food High.

In discussing the rise in the prices of farm products, the president said that he was "not unmindful of the consuming public which is concerned in behalf of more moderate living costs," but asserted that "unfortunately the low prices of agricultural staples did not find adequate reflection in a lower cost of living."

Referring to figures given by Meyer, the president said that the facts cited by the director of the finance corporation were cheering evidence that we are moving fast toward establishing that necessary balance in industry.

The president commented on the part played by the war finance corporation towards "dissipating our agricultural difficulties."

Text of Letter.

The text of the president's letter follows in part:

"Dear Mr. Meyer:

"I have read with much interest and gratification, your letter dealing with the operations of the war finance corporation. Although I have endeavored, as well as was possible in view of the many other duties confronting me, to keep in touch with the work of the corporation, I confess some astonishment at the scope which your operations have attained.

"Such a volume of transactions indicates very clearly that the congress was correct in believing that an emergency existed for which such special measures of relief ought to be provided.

"Your summary of the improvement in the agricultural price situation is especially impressive in view of the short period in which it has taken place. You tell me that, by reason of the farmers, receiving much better prices, an orderly liquidation is in progress throughout the country, resulting in considerable repayments to the corporation, and, I assume, in even much larger volume to the banks.

Confirms Information.

"Your statement concerning the improved condition of the market for agriculture commodities and the advanced prices, confirms the information I have received from the department of agriculture and other sources. In expressing satisfaction with these improvements in the agricultural price situation, we are not unmindful of the interest of the consuming public which is concerned in behalf of more moderate living costs.

Must Be Equitable.

"Unfortunately, the low prices of agricultural staples—did not find adequate reflection in a lowered cost of living. There can be no restoration of general business stability without the establishment of an equitable relativity between the producers' selling price and the cost to the consumer. These facts, which you cite are cheering evidences that we are moving fast toward establishing that necessary balance. We are making splendid progress toward dissipation of our agricultural difficulties; and I think we all recognize that when stability, prosperity and confidence shall have been restored to agriculture, the country will have progressed far on the way to general resumption of prosperous activities.

Farm Trip Helpful.

"The showing which the corporation is now able to make strengthens my conviction that the trip which you made last fall through the agricultural sections was very

LLOYD GEORGE GOES TO WALES

Resignation Decision Awaits His Return

PRESIDES AT MEETING OF CABINET TODAY

Premier To Turn His Attention to Political Unrest in India, It Is Said

London, March 8.—Premier Lloyd George who has been ill, has recovered enough, today, to preside at a meeting of the cabinet today. The meeting had been called to get the premier's approval of the proposed to appropriate 250,000 pounds sterling for the relief of the Russian sufferers.

The British political situation is unchanged. The premier is said to be on holiday at Criccieth, Wales, and will not announce his decision on the reported intention to resign until his return. He will leave London tomorrow.

Negotiations between the Unionist supporters of the premier and the Tory "die hards" in the coalition continue.

India Is Next.

London, March 8.—Having settled the Irish and Egyptian troubles, Premier Lloyd George will now turn his attention to the political unrest in India. Despite his illness and his doctor's orders to take a vacation, the premier has postponed his trip to Criccieth, Wales, and will preside at a full meeting of the cabinet on Friday.

This ministerial council will deal wholly with the Indian problem and the best way to allay the political disorders.

It is probable that the premier will leave for Wales immediately after the meeting.

Depends on Conference.

London, March 8.—Whether or not Great Britain recognizes the soviet government at Moscow will depend upon the outcome of the international economic conference at Genoa, Austen Chamberlain, government spokesman, announced in the house of commons this afternoon.

"The government has no reason to believe that Russia is threatening Poland or any other state with military aggression," Mr. Chamberlain added.

It has been reported recently that Russia was massing troops on the Polish frontier.

FERRICK REJECTS CONCRETE ROAD BIDS

Governor's Cabinet Behind the Action.

Columbus, March 8.—While but two contracts are to be awarded for concrete road building in Ohio, contracts let at the February 24, and March 3 letting, have been rejected by State Highway Director Ferrick.

The contracts were not rejected because of the absence of alternates.

Governor Davis' cabinet is credited with advising this action in the seven letters placed before them, as contracts at an effort to reduce current prices.

Awards amounting to include: W. M. Brode company, Newcomerstown, Tuscarawas road, Coshocton county; A. J. Becker, Norwalk, brick, Columbia-Sandusky road, Crawford county; Lane and Freeman, Cleveland, 1.7 miles, Medina Elyria road Lorain county.

SOLONS OPPOSE FORD CONTRACT

Hold Muscle Shoals Offer Not Acceptable.

EXISTING PACTS PROVE BARRIER TO SCHEME

Contracts with Alabama Company Militate Against Acceptance of Ford Offer.

Washington, March 8.—W. B. Mayo, chief of engineers for Henry Ford, was told by Chairman Kahn of the house military committee that it would require years to thrash out legal entanglements and it was doubtful even then that the government would be able to accept the Detroit manufacturer's proposed contract for purchase and lease of the nitrate and power projects at Muscle Shoals.

After the committee adjourned other committee members said that the legal barriers to acceptance of the Ford proposal appeared inescapable because of the contracts held by the Alabama Power company and the Air Nitrates corporation, which, those concerns claim, give them exclusive rights to purchase the Warrior steam plant and nitrate plant No. 2, respectively. Both units would be delivered to Mr. Ford with free titles should his proposal be accepted and could not be freed from the contract conditions without prolonged litigation.

Discussion of the legal difficulties the committee faced in considering the Muscle Shoals situation developed after Mayo and Gray Silver, Washington representative of the American Farm Bureau Federation, had presented three alterations which they said Ford had agreed to make in his original offer.

The first alteration provided for a fixed capitalization of not less than $10,000,000 for the company Ford would create to operate the enterprise. The amendment was suggested by Secretary Weeks to safeguard the government's interests against failure of the operating company to carry out the contract in good faith for the 100 years it would be effective.

Another amendment offered was a guarantee to manufacture "commercial fertilizers" rather than nitrates and "other compounds," while the third proposed to give authority to the company's directing board to regulate delivery of the fertilizers direct from factory to consumer, making it impossible for intermediary agents to handle the products and increase the price to the farmers above the 8 per cent profit charged by the manufacturing company.

These amendments were welcomed by the committee, although some members expressed regret that Ford had refused to accept a 50 year lease.

Government To Take Action on Soldier Fire-Traps.

PROTEST TO CONGRESS BUILDINGS OF WOOD

Thousands in Peril on Account of Dilapidated Structures. Survey To Be Made.

Washington, March 8.—The government will abandon or close up hospitals that are regular fire-traps and are a menace to the thousands of bed-ridden patients among disabled service men confined in them, it was decided by Director Forbes, of the war risk bureau, today.

Forbes will proceed at once to hasten the building of new fireproof government hospitals where patients may be safely housed.

Congress will receive a protest also against any further authorization for hospital buildings of wooden construction.

Must Be Modern in Detail.

Director Forbes' policy will be to insist that construction work which will proceed under the $16,000,000 fund to be allowed for the purpose under the Langley bill shall be modern in every detail.

Meanwhile, there is expected to be a cleaning out of hospitals treating former service men when fire hazards are apparent.

Among the 31,000 former service men who are under treatment, it is believed thousands are in imminent danger because buildings that house them are dilapidated.

Government experts will make an immediate survey under Director Forbes' direction to effect the removal of patients to safer hospitals. The first step in this plan was an order closing the Fox Hills hospital in New York where 836 veterans who are bed patients were imperilled in a temporary structure.

PRESIDENT FOR MINE PARLEY

Suggests That Operators Meet with Men.

MINERS WILLING TO HOLD CONFERENCE

President Is Said To Have Informed Secretary Davis That Meeting Is Essential.

Washington, March 8.—The belief of President Harding that the coal operators and miners should keep faith and get together before the expiration of the present agreement on March 31 was reiterated at the white house. The president, it was said, has informed Secretary Davis that the department of labor should insist on both parties to the present contract observing the provision for a meeting of the operators and miners to renew the agreement before the expiration of the present one.

After being informed of President Harding's attitude favoring a conference of miners and operators, John L. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers of America issued a statement at Indianapolis saying union officials were willing to meet the operators of the central competitive field at "any time or place."

"There is no question about the miners' position," declared Lewis. "We are ready to meet the operators at any time or place in accordance with the present contract for the central competitive field in which miners and operators pledged themselves to hold a joint wage conference before April 1."

MOTORIST RUNS AWAY AFTER INJURING MAN

Victim in Hospital Fighting for Life.

Cleveland, March 8.—The driver of a car listed as being owned by an Elyria man was being sought today while William Sheridan was fighting for his life in St. John's hospital.

According to reports, Sheridan was struck by a machine at West Eighty-Fifth street and Detroit avenue shortly after 11 o'clock last night and left there by the motorist driving hurriedly westward. William Powers, in another car, saw the accident, gave chase and forced the driver to return but released him when he found that Sheridan had been taken to a hospital believing him to be only slightly injured.

DRY METHODS ARE SCORED BY LAWYER

Asks That Fleischmann Order Be Rescinded.

Washington, March 8.—Denouncing methods of prohibition officials as "hara-handed and prejudiced," Henry W. Wise, New York lawyer today asked Revenue Commissioner Blair to rescind an order prohibiting the Fleischmann company from manufacturing or selling industrial alcohol. The Fleischmann company's spokesmen were before Commissioner Blair when he resumed hearings of charges upon which Commissioner Haynes based an order against the company. Attorney Wise charged that S. F. Rutter had prejudiced the case because he allowed the company only two days to defend their case, while the government was permitted to consume eleven days.

Commissioner Blair said that the hearing would be ended before the close of the day and that his decision will be announced soon afterward. No new evidence is being submitted.

Blair decided only to review the facts and testimony adduced in the previous hearing of the issues at Philadelphia.

SAVANT SLEEPS WITH GHOST

Keeps One Eye Open and Is Armed to Teeth.

SEEKS SOLUTION OF NOVA SCOTIA PUZZLE

Haunted House in Antigonish To Give Up Secrets If Scientist Survives Ordeal.

Antigonish, N. S., March 8.—Dr. Walter F. Prince, New York scientist and ghost catcher, slept in the "haunted house" at Caledonia Mills, twenty miles southeast of here, last night. He slept with "one eye open" and was armed to the teeth, usually considered to be necessary precautions when sleeping with a ghost.

Old Highlanders, shivering in their taciturnity with ghost stories rattling all about, still stake their simple faith on the reality of the spook, which drove the MacDonald family from their home and started thirty-eight separate fires at Caledonia Mills.

May Be Skeptical.

Maybe Dr. Prince is not so well convinced that there is anything supernatural in the strange manifestations, reports of which are the real basis of his ghost hunt—maybe not—but just the same his equipment is not so different from the old "spectacle of Solomon," so potent in driving away the famous Cornish ghost of the seventeenth century.

Dr. Prince has his "bells," which surely will jingle if the ghost attempts any further table rapping.

What else is in the scientist's bag of tricks is secret—he is alone in a locked room with orders that no one shall approach without permission.

This warning might mean that Dr. Prince will use pellets of lead instead of the old Anglican bishop's brass ring, or it might indicate that he plans another equally positive reception for the ghost who thus far has been no respecter of persons.

The Cornish Vicar.

Parson Rudall, the Cornish vicar, who banished the Botathen ghost in 1665, went no less armed to the fray than Dr. Prince. Besides being "armed at all parts" Parson Rudall carried a license from his bishop with a big red seal which license he had obtained "after I had disbursed certain moneys for dignitary purposes, as the manner of such officers hath always been" and after which "the bishop did himself affix his signature and deliver the document into my hand, and when I knelt down to receive his benediction he softly said: 'Let it be secret, Mr. R—weak brethren, weak brethren.'"

Mr. Prince is declared to be interested in the story that Mary Ellen adopted daughter of the MacDonald family, has a sweetheart. Mary Ellen and the senior MacDonald have been persuaded to go back to Caledonia Mills with Dr. Prince and party and they will be grilled by Dr. Prince, who has framed 500 questions bearing on the activities of the apparition.

Ghost Takes Night Off.

Halifax, N. S., March 8.—The spook that has been carrying on high jinks in the "haunted" house at Caledonia Mills, took a night off last night and Dr. Walter F. Prince scientist, who went to [illegible] to investigate, sent word today there was nothing to the report.

Dr. Prince, who is director of the American Institute of Scientific Research, of New York, slept in the haunted house in a room with bells arranged so that any ghostly intruder would make a racket.

Alexander MacDonald, owner of the house, gave Dr. Prince a story of the spookish activities but told him he did not think the ghost intended to harm anybody.

ACCESSIONS TO RANKS OF TEXTILE STRIKERS

Two Hundred and Twenty-Five Go Out Today.

Lawrence, Mass., March 8.—Two hundred and twenty-five employees of the Duck Lyon Bleachery walked out today.

Today's walkout is the result of the recent dye department.

Seventy-one hundred and fifty more employees will be thrown out of work by the action of the steam dye house workers, it is expected.

Pickets from the I. W. W. textile organization will march to the plant at 7 a. m. today and begin picketing this afternoon.

Suspect Fatally Shot.

Cincinnati, March 8.—In a revolver battle last night between three alleged automobile tire thieves and a detail of city detectives, Ed Wilson, twenty-one, was shot and probably fatally wounded. The alleged thieves were surprised by officers and opened fire when the detectives attempted to arrest them. During the fight, more than a dozen shots were fired. Wilson's companions escaped, but later were captured.

TREATY ISSUE TO BE FORCED

Lodge Addresses Senate on the Arms Pacts.

IRRECONCILABLES TO ORGANIZE FORCES

Will Array Themselves Against the Four-Power Pacific Pact, It Is Reported.

Washington, March 8.—That an organized group of "irreconcilable" senators will array themselves against the four-power Pacific treaty became known when it was learned that a definite plan of action had been agreed upon after a long consultation by Senator Borah (Rep., Ida.) and some of the friends of former President Wilson.

How far-reaching may be the understanding thus effected by the "irreconcilable" leader, or to what extent it may involve the personal sentiments of Mr. Wilson himself was not revealed. Senator Borah and the former president were said not to have conferred directly, although their friends said they had been in consultation by letter regarding the four-power pact.

Senator Lodge, the Republican floor leader, addressed the senate today and will challenge opponents of the pact to bring their case openly to the senate floor. He made a vigorous defense of the Pacific treaty.

Many senators are preparing addresses both for and against ratification.

Since it came before the senate, the treaty never has been continuously under debate for more than two hours, and most of the discussion has gone forward with only a handful of senators in their places. Not a single member of the "irreconcilable" group listened to Senator Kellogg's speech yesterday, and there was no effort to draw him into a running debate. In the main, the treaty opponents have indicated a desire to reserve their fire.

Senator Borah's understanding regarding the plan of campaign against the treaty was said to have followed a series of conferences and an exchange of letters between him and several men in and out of the senate and close to Mr. Wilson. One of those from whom the Idaho senator was understood to have sought the views of the former president is Bernard M. Baruch of New York.

Murder Trial in Chicago Cause of Controversy.

LABOR LEADER TO GO ON TRIAL TODAY

Keeper of Wine Room and Waiter Are Murdered—Judges in a Wrangle Over Case.

Chicago, March 8.—A controversy seems to rise in a widening investigation of law enforcement conditions in Chicago has today out of the trial of [illegible] J. Walsh, labor leader, for murder of George Gast, a waiter, and Adolph Georg, Jr., were [illegible] in Georg's wine room. [illegible] already has been tried and [illegible] of the murder of Georg [illegible] trial of Walsh for Gast's murder was scheduled to begin today before Judge John J. Sullivan, who presided at the first trial.

State's Attorney Crowe asked Chief Justice Scanlan to assign the case to some other court claiming prejudice against Judge Sullivan and Chief Justice Scanlan ordered the case transferred to Judge Fitch's court.

Refuses To Give Up Case.

Judge Sullivan refused to relinquish the case, contending that the chief justice has no authority to assign a case once it has been prepared for trial. He declares only the presiding judge can grant a change of venue.

State's Attorney Crowe has asked Judge Scanlan to call a grand jury for the investigation of the entire affair.

Crowe alleges he will present evidence that perjury and bribery figured in the first trial of Walsh. Crowe likewise assailed the method of obtaining juries in this county and asserted it is practically impossible to obtain criminal convictions here.

Crowe made public a letter he had received threatening his life if he started any "fool talk of grand juries for labor guys."

DRAMATIC TALE OF LOST SHIP

Captain Tells of Foundering of Freighter.

OPERATOR KEEPS TO KEY UNTIL ENGULFED

Last Message Is That Ship Is Sinking Off Newfoundland. Rescuers Find No Trace.

New York, March 8.—A dramatic story of the founding of the Norwegian freighter, Grontoft, in the midst of a terrific hurricane at sea with the loss of thirty-five lives, was brought to port today by Captain Hans Jorgensen, of the Baltic American liner, Esthonia.

Jorgensen said the voyage from Dantzig to New York was the roughest he had ever known.

Receives S. O. S. Message.

On February 20, the Esthonia was about seven hundred miles east of Cape Race battering her way through a north Atlantic tempest when an S. O. S. was picked up from the Grontoft. The Esthonia put on all steam and started for the Grontoft. The waves were breaking over the decks and the ship was pitching so the commander could not stand upon the bridge.

"The captain has just told the crew that the ship is lost," said another wireless message picked up by the Esthonia.

The last message broke off in the middle. The wireless operator had gone down with his ship, still working the key.

This message read:

"Sinking, stern first. Can not stay up any longer."

The Esthonia could find no trace of wreckage nor crew.

DAUGHERTY DECLARES SOLONS MAY SERVE

Declares Smoot and Burton Are Eligible for Debt Body.

Washington, March 8.—Attorney General Daugherty today informed President Harding that it was his opinion that Senator Smoot, of Utah, and Representative Burton, of Ohio, were eligible to serve as members of the commission which will arrange the payment of the $11,000,000,000 foreign debt to the United States.

Daugherty's opinion which said that the appointments did not offend Article I, section six, of the constitution, was forwarded to the senate where the confirmation of Smoot and Burton is being held up because of legal objections.

108-Mile Winds.

Dover, England, March 8.—Maritime traffic in the English channel was suspended today as the result of a 108-mile an hour gale. Numerous ships were wrecked.

ESTIMATES ON FARM CROPS OF NATION

Washington, March 8.—The department of agriculture today made the following estimates of crops in the United States on March 1, as reported by its field representatives:

The amount of corn on farms March 1, 1922, was about 1,513,12[illegible] 000 bushels or 42.5 per cent. of the 1921 crop. About 19.2 per cent of the crop will be shipped out of the counties where grown.

The amount of wheat on farms March 1, 1922, was about 331,226,000 bushels, or 16.5 per cent. of the 1921 crop. About 6.6 per cent of the crop will be shipped out of the counties where grown.

The amount of oats on farms March 1, 1922, was about 404,451,000 bushels, or 28.1 per cent of the 1921 crops. About 22.8 per cent of the crop will be shipped out of the counties where grown.

The amount of barley on farms March 1, 1922, was about 49,950,000 bushels, or 27.1 per cent. of the 1921 crop. About 36.1 per cent of the crop will be shipped out of the counties where grown.

United States price comparisons for March 1 are corn 54.8 this year, 64.5 last year; wheat, 116.9 this year, 147.2 last year; oats 36.6 this year, 41.9 last year; barley 45.6 this year, 58.5 last year.

MINERS HOPE TO AVERT STRIKE

Of Soft Coal Workers on First of April.

ADMIT, HOWEVER, THAT SITUATION IS TENSE

"Whole Matter Rests with the Operators," Is Statement of One Official of Union.

Indianapolis, Ind., March 8.—Officials of the United Mine Workers are "hopeful" today that a strike of bituminous coal workers April 1 may be averted. But in the same breath, they admit there is little ground for hope that suspension of operations will not ensue upon expiration of the present wage agreement three weeks hence.

"The whole thing rests with the operators," one union official said today, explaining that if the mine owners once get into conference with the intention of consummating an agreement speedy adjustment can be made and cessation of mining operations avoided.

No Conference, No Agreement.

"No conference, no agreement; no agreement—then a strike," was the way President John L. Lewis, of the mine workers, summed up the situation.

Strike ballots unofficially report almost unanimously favoring a walkout in April in event a new wage contract is not effected, continued pouring into union headquarters. Meanwhile the union executive board continues in session.

Articles of alliance between the United Mine Workers and the sixteen major railroad unions of the country were ratified by unanimous vote of the board today.

Union To Meet Operators.

St. Louis, March 8. — The union coal miners of Illinois will enter into independent negotiations with the coal operators of the state unless an interstate conference is arraigned or in prospect by April 1.

This defiance to the edict of the United Mine Workers of America was decided upon at a meeting of the state executive board of the Illinois miners' union, held here today. A tremendous breach in the ranks of the international union with resultant weakening in the strike that seems imminent in the Pennsylvania and Ohio fields is now threatened.

Oklahoma Bank Closes.

Oklahoma City, Okla., March 8.—The Wilkin-Hale State bank failed to open for business today. It was the only state bank in Oklahoma City and had a capital stock of $200,000. A placard in the window said a reorganization was being effected. A steady withdrawal of funds was responsible for the closing today, according to the state banking department. This makes more than forty banks closed in the state in 1922.

New Treaty Take Place.

Washington, March 8.—President Harding informed the United States senate today that the Lansing-Ishii agreement of 1917, in which the United States recognized the "special interests" of Japan in China, has been entirely superseded by the treaties affecting China, written during the arms conference here.

APE FOREBEARS NOT FOR BRYAN

Commoner Is Not Disturbed by Criticism.

DARWIN BELIEVERS SHOW STRANGE PRIDE

Is Opinion—Satirizes College Professors with Tails Wound Around Family Trees.

[Copyright 1922 by I. N. S.]

Washington, March 8.—"I am not disturbed by any criticism made by any man who thinks he is a descendant of an ape," said W. J. Bryan today. He may boast of his brute ancestry, but as a people, pride and there are comparatively few who share it with him.

"You can silence any of these worshippers of a jungle ancestry by asking them to put in writing the very truths which they reject when they consistently apply Darwin's hypothesis to the Bible. I have been trying to get some of these insolent guessers to answer the question, but they avoid it. If they will show how little of the Bible they believe to be consistent with Darwinism the people will understand the extent to which they undermine faith with their ridiculous guesses.

"They do not believe in the creation of man by separate act as a part of God's plan. They see no divine purpose in man's presence here. They exclude the miraculous and the supernatural as inconsistent with evolution. They libel Christ by denying his virgin birth; they rob him of his deity and scout at his resurrection. In fact they so belittle him that they regard the finding of the fossil remains of what they call a five-toed horse as a more important event even than the birth of the Savior.

Raps Atheists.

"When the Christian people of this country understand the ravages of agnosticism, caused by the substitution of the unsupported guesses, for the word of God, they will compel the atheists and agnostics to build their own schools instead of using the public schools for the spread of unbelief.

"Christians do not object to the teachings of any truth; no truth can be inconsistent with Christianity, but they do object to fantastic guesses being substituted for the "thus saveth the Lord" of the scriptures."

"When a college professor winds his intellectual tail around a limb of Darwin's family tree, he naturally looks down with contempt upon ordinary people who walk on the ground and are content to believe that they were made in the image of God. But while this gives amusement to the 'tree man,' it does not disturb the people, except when such men take charge of the educational system of the country and undermine the religious faith of the children entrusted to their care.

"With something like a million species of life they have not yet been able to prove that a single species came from another.

"The flimsy evidence upon which Darwinites build their faith would not be sufficient to convict a person of petty larceny in any court in the civilized world. And yet, upon this so-called evidence, they repudiate the Bible. Darwinism made an agnostic out of Darwin.

MARION BIDS FAREWELL TO REV. FATHER DENNING

St. Mary's Church Packed for Formal Ceremony.

PRIEST LEAVES TODAY AT NOON FOR NEW YORK

Receives Gift of $1,260 from Parishoners and Cane from Other Friends.

St. Mary's church was crowded to its capacity Tuesday evening with friends of Rev. Joseph M. Denning who wished to bid him farewell and Godspeed on his journey to his new position as consul general and agent at Tangier, Morocco. Rev Father Denning left at noon today for New York. He expects to sail Saturday on the U. S. Shipping board liner, America.

The church was decorated throughout with American flags, baskets of calla lilies and other potted spring flowers. A large American flag decorated the center altar and flags were draped over the altar railing. Seated with Rev Father Denning in the chancel were his brother, Rev. Lawrence Denning, of Hamilton; Rev. John Brinker, of LaRue; Rev. Father Braschler, of Upper Sandusky; Rev. Father Fohrman, a missionary from South

REV. JOSEPH M. DENNING

America; Rev. Thomas J. Kearns, assistant pastor of St. Mary's; Dr. Jesse Swank, pastor of Epworth M. E. church; Rev. M. L. Buckley, pastor of the Central Christian church; Judge Caleb H. Norris, Judge Grant E. Mouser, Dr. Carl W. Sawyer and Patrick Kelly.

Presents Purse of $1,260.

Dr. Carl W. Sawyer presided as chairman and at the close of the program presented Rev. Father Denning with a draft for $1,260 a gift from the members of his congregation and an elegant cane a gift from other friends.

Following a number by St. Mary's school orchestra the invocation was spoken by Rev. Father Kearns.

Dr. Swank's Tribute.

Dr. Jesse Swank paid a glowing tribute to Rev. Father Denning both as a priest and a man and recalled many instances of his work in the city especially during the period of the World war.

"The most wonderful thing in the world to me is that God has given us power of determining how to live our lives," Dr. Swank said. "I wish to pay a tribute to the fatherly priest and friend who has dared to sow his life through the years, months and days among people till honor and regard is shown in the great audience with tears in their eyes at the thought of bidding him farewell. May you never lower your flag but still sow your life for the honor and glory of Christ."

"Father Denning and men like him are a greater protection and safety to a nation than all the armies that ever were assembled." Dr. Swank continued. In closing the speaker said: "I bring my tribute and lay at your feet as a man and minister with these people and I assure your Father Denning that we Protestant ministers will pray that God will watch over you, and give you health and that you will bring honor to your country as you have to this city."

Tells of Morocco.

After congratulating Rev Father Denning on his appointment and expressing regret at his leaving Marion, Judge Caleb H Norris gave a most interesting geographic and historic account of Father Denning's new home. In closing he said: "The selection of Father Denning is appreciated and approved by all his friends regardless of political or religious inclination. I know him to be a man possessing all the qualities of a good citizen, a thorough American with an earnest love of country and its citizens. I know him to possess all the qualities to fill the position to which he is sent. I am assured from my knowledge of the man that he will do honor to the president, country, city and community."

In addressing the assembly Judge Mouser declared that President Harding would not have called Rev. Father Denning had he not known him to possess the qualities which assured him a brilliant success over there Judge Mouser said in part: "We have come together in the spirit of love to bid Godspeed to the first citizen to a foreign land. Thousands of people have felt the compress of Father Denning's hand; thousands have looked into his beloved eyes and felt the inspiration which will leave a lasting impression, and will live long in memory.

All Contribute to Sacrifice.

"You who belong to his church realize and know him best because he has come in contact with your souls. He knows your innermost hearts and you realize you are making a sacrifice in giving up Father Denning to serve his country and church in a foreign field. We are all contributing to a sacrifice because of his departure.

"So many people are constantly looking up. This is poor philosophy; we should look down in a spirit of love and pity for humanity. Father Denning always has looked up to God and down to mankind and this has made him almost a perfect man. We all love Father Denning and why should we not love a good man? In his eyes beams the love of the father and a spark almost divine in his being is kept alive in a service of love divine." In closing Judge Mouser referred to Rev. Father Denning's splendid service during the World war and declared that he stood in the front lines in all patriotic activities to bring to a close the great conflict.

Father Denning Speaks.

Following Judge Mouser's address Rev. Father Denning thanked the audience for the tribute to his departure. In bidding farewell he said:

Father Denning's Farewell.

"I am deeply grateful to you every one for this tribute on my departure from your midst. I realize I am leaving you never to return as a citizen of the community. I am glad to go, but the gladness is not unaccompanied by a poignant sorrow. Glad to assume a station beneath the stars and stripes of my native land in a distant land. Grieved to leave those amongst whom I have spent some of the best and happiest days of my life—my sojourn in your midst has been a long span of seventeen years; years rich I hope in the garland harvest of many a kind deed for God and man.

"Coming comparatively a young man, my yearnings were first to succeed in the apostolate committed to my care; second to see the broadest possible relations exist among people of varied creed and nationality. That I have lived to see my budding hope flower to fruition and exhale the sweetest perfume man can know is a legacy I am taking away with me. For I doubt if there is a community in the broad expanse of the land where the brotherhood of man has assumed larger proportions than in Marion.

"Stress of great emergencies will at times fuse into a harmonious whole men and women of divergent economic politic or religious tenets. It has been my happy privilege to have seen the day when our hearts pulsed throughout the land when its institutions were endangered but lived to see the marvelous spectacle of priest and minister meeting on the same ground to pray to a common Father with audiences composed of men and women brought together under a compelling spell of a common humanity. At no time in my life have I felt so strongly the force of the ancient prophets query 'has not our God created us?' as I have here.

Must Be Realized More.

"The unity of sentiment in social and commercial life must be realized more and more if society is to endure. Though men and women will continue to think and believe differently they must learn to compose those differences and unite in a fundamental unity before which all differences will fade away and human amity arise ascendant. And this, not only in the province of religion, but in all relations of life that call men and women together.

"The proud tone of all my effort in your midst has been to broaden the relations that ought to endure amongst people of every denomination and my efforts have not been in vain. During the years of my pastorate at St. Mary's I saw the commercial and social life amongst Catholics and non-Catholics grow beautifying under the influence of this neighborly spirit. I saw the dawn—the noontide of a day when the kindly friendship of those outside my church became one of my most valued assets, and with this spirit in the community are we not justified in prophesying peace and to the wind and wave our differences that have rolled our human life in the past.

"Never in the history of the world has this spirit been so imperiously demanded as now. Looking out over the horizon we see an almost hopeless state of affairs; problems and complications, the solution of which seems beyond human ingenuity stare us in the face. In our optimism we talk and hope for peace as an issue of this or that conference and yet in our hearts feel the elements of a lasting peace are wanting.

Honors Equal

"Of course, the big job has been done and our lads are off to their boys who accomplished it. The mightiest temple in the history of our planet is ours. No nation, no creed has given this to us. White and black, yellow and red, Catholic, Jew and Protestant have come out of the melting pot with equal honors. The walls of partition which separated good people and set them in hostile camps are broken down and the brotherhood of decency and liberty has come upon us in a measure the world has never known. We have had the clash of arms. The blood of the best has mingled with the dust of the arena. Empires have fallen before our fascinated gaze and broken crowns have mingled with the debris of splintered thrones. But the curtain has fallen at last and each of us passes out to the quiet prosaic ways of civic and commercial life and what shall be our objective? The ancient temple has been shattered and if we are looking for a worthy substitute for winning the war then my parting message is that we must dig deeper and lay our cornerstones anew.

"Have we a great vision? No nation ever achieved a definite end with its eyes shut; our fathers had one and it was a government of, for and by the people. Do we know where we are drifting?

"The crucial test of character has come upon us as men and as a nation and it will be a sad commentary if the reconstruction of the war-torn world does not awaken profound emotion and fill humanity with a thrill as it raises its hand to rear a new temple on the ruins of the old.

Desire for Wider Life.

"Love of country we are told springs from a desire for a richer a wider life. Our lives are fashioned by the books we read, by the men and women we fear, love or hate and to believe that skyward impulse finds its apogee in wealth, power and fame is a mistake. They may bring safety, but peace never, apart from God's love.

"There is a higher love than the love of native land and let no man think that America will ever again sink back into the soft indifference of self or that the white flame of brotherhood will be extinguished in the conquest of the commercially minded. A lofty ideal gleams afar and for the millions who have fought for liberty at home or on the field, commerce and industry will take on a new vesture and a vision of justice and the unassailable square deal are here if Warren G. Harding can make them possible.

"These, a return to normalcy, call for men who are willing to suffer any obloquy rather than betray truth—moral causes govern the stand or fall of men and nations. In vain to have a conquering army; in vain flerting trade or the pitching of our tents to barter with the nations of the world if taint smolders in the heart of our manhood. We must give little attention to what country a man comes from and remember all national limitations disappear in the presence of the heroic.

"Here on our hospitable shores all peoples find a home. Here more than on any other spot of earth will you find a broadened good will and readiness to help any citizen who holds himself in vital communion with the principles on which liberty rests. American loyalty then means loyalty to justice and humanity. If a noble race is to spring up in these reconstruction days it can only be by cultivating a tender solicitude for the rights of all, the sick, the forsaken and even the criminal.

Millions Growing Indifferent.

"And here let me point out a dangerous goal. Too often the teeming masses look for their heaven here Robbed of the sustaining prop of Christianity 60,000,000 of our people are growing indifferent to all spiritual influence. They are reaching out with eager expectancy for the prizes on the pleasure tree and unless their materialistic yearnings are staged within proper bounds our fathers' patrimony will eventually lay in fragments at our feet. The devastation of Russia and its contiguous nations are plain indications of shattered institutions here should their bolshevistic spirit gain the ascendancy. They have persuaded themselves that the God of the Christians is more exultant or a great complacent Being Who views human delinquency with compassion and obedience to His law is a matter of inclination and what is this but thinly veiled paganism.

"Peace in any form is impossible as long as humanity fails to give obedience to divine precepts that bind under obligations of eternal retribution. These people have made a human God of the Master of Soul and opened the gateways to destruction of the moral order. I am profoundly convinced that the most elaborate peace efforts will be mere tinkering unless the world returns to Christ with a clear vision of objective. Nothing short of the decalogue.

"The cry from the wastes of Europe and direct our feet in the ways of peace is primer of Christianity and usage the pursuit of America's way. And as we run along in progressive pace it would be well to pause an instant that the greatest obstacle to economic unrest will not be the drink evil, but the corrupt office holder, not the party chief, but the bloated man point whose greed crushes legitimate competition; not the selfish rich but the radical socialist or demagogue who runs with the crowd.

Right to Living Wage.

"It would be well to recall that the toiling millions in mine, factory or shop are endowed with the same immortal souls as their employers and that the sometimes envied, overworked tenement of the soul may not be used for human as a pack horse, but has a right to a living wage which will enable it to live in frugal comfort in a home but a home, and possess an environment that will invite health and development both body and soul.

"That there has been abuse in the past no one can deny. Because of these abuses the soap-box orator of our day finds an apology for his pyrotechnics, depicting impoverished legions hobbling along the via dolorosa bearing a cross to a golgotha wealth has pointed out. The voice of the clear minded is too often drowned in the clamor and curse of the demagogue.

"The best do not always guide us never has a nation soared to the lofty material heights of America. Can we say that our moral elevation has kept pace with our material success? Our superstitious belief that money is our only God is hurrying us off at times to a dishonesty that oftimes impoverished the multitude. I am convinced that the wave of unrest that hurried European nations into war when analyzed will find its genesis in a bankrupt spirituality and now in an insolvent materiality. At the bottom of all that threatens to turn our peace into a curse as bad as war is the inability of those nations to find rest in the heart of God.

Falls on Listless Ears.

"'Take up thy cross and follow me!' Crucify inordinate appetite and deny yourselves 'legitimate satisfaction for the common weal falls on listless ears of the nations today that banish good from its citizenship and the resultant mad riot for the prizes of life which accompany chaos and unrest. How far have we not drifted from the noble race that landed at Plymouth Rock and built these noble states?

"The last rags of decency are being torn from the back of pure womanhood by our lax divorce laws. The record of our own state is worse than many others. The number of divorces in Ohio for 1916 was 7,607, an increase of fifty-nine per cent over 1906. What a gloomy pall this throws over our hopes for an iridescent republic in the future. The family is the true unit and the integrity of any nation depends on the integrity of its units.

"In truth we have a task of great magnitude before us if we are to take our place on a plane where highest usefulness will have scope and higher happiness find attainment. Greed and dishonesty must pass from our minds, we have to learn that that which makes a millionaire spoils a man and that he who thinks trade will place him in history's future niche will perish without leaving any lasting influence on the permanency of the country. Only those who carry large thoughts, deep faith will live forever while the trader, the merchant will be forgotten like the wares he sells; a beggar in whose breast upwells piety and honesty will survive an empire.

"Normalcy then means purification of every avenue of life, family, church and state and as who seeks solace in the club or on the street and not in the family circle is a Bolshevist. In vain build church and schools, if the children who come to us do not drink in pure love of country and love of Christ from the home, what burns in the heart of the father glows in the breast of his little children.

Way To Make Country Safe.

"This is the way to make democracy safe democracy does not mean that people may do as they please. It implies restraint, obedience and taxation it will promote peace, contentment and happiness when all respect the law and are willing to sacrifice for the common good. It begins right here and now and no man will ever get the protection of the stars and stripes from me in my consular position if I see his life subverts these pillars of democracy.

"Finally we see that the end of all rational life is to make for justice and religion; to move in the light of higher things; to foster thrift, education, sobriety and honesty. This should be the aria de Bravura that should accompany 'My Country 'Tis of Thee!'

"If but a few of us will strive for this, the stars of our country will arise to herald the dawn of a new era and not throw us perish on the ruins of a once great republic, stained with forgetfulness of its creator and the murder of justice and right."

Farewell to Parishoners.

In bidding farewell to the members of St. Mary's Father Denning said:

"To you dear friends what can I say save you never to return save as a visitor or in dreams which memory brings back from the past. A resume of my long stay and the work of burdening and paring off a large indebtedness and organization would be a wearisome recital to desecrate the parting moments.

"What has been done was done for Him to whom I consecrated every act of my being on the day when as a young man I was elevated to the sanctuary. May His sleepless gaze that fathoms the earth's depths see my good intentions to glorify His holy name give me the recompense of a servant who stood at His door in watchful solicitude for His Master's interests.

"A pang of sorrow cleaves my breast this moment as I realize that some of the tenderest ties that human heart knows are to be sundered this evening. That never again as your pastor will we meet be gladdened with the happiest of faces of those whom I love and love best. Coming to you, ... manhood I have passed a long span of years in your midst, years I hope rich in the golden harvest of many a kindly deed to you and conquest for God.

"I recall the first Sunday in your midst, how affrighted I was in the magnitude of the task before me. I shrank with dismay and discouragement. Many of the parishioners, viewing my youthful appearance and dubious about my experiences, voiced their feelings in anxiety about my ability to lead them to spiritual and temporal success. I remember one boy remarked, 'he will never do.' I believe that he will acknowledge that I did him and the rest of you. I mean I did you all the good a little man could.

Made Achievement Possible.

"I have seen the acorn planted by the saintly Father Burns and heard Father Mulvihill grow into the sturdy oak, spreading its branches year by year and today in church and school St. Mary's stands second to none in the archdiocese of Cincinnati. This success was accomplished without a fear of sorrow or moment of regret in your minds. Like your saintly sires in the beautiful Isle that lies beyond the blue waters of the Atlantic my appeal was answered with a cooperation, a generosity that made achievement possible.

"In the early years many a night, many a day was spent in dreaming and musing as to how best I might be able to pay the enormous debt accumulated by the church, new school, cemetery, and convent. But the work has been done and grounds added to your parochial property which, enhanced with shrub and tree, will make it one of the most inviting properties of Marion city.

"To you belongs the credit. The blood, brawn and muscle of St. Mary's loyal children have made all this possible. No single effort or appeal that I made during all those years has gone unanswered and in departing I thank you cordially for it all.

"You have a church which in architectural expression is a monument to your generosity and an expression of your allegiance to God. A school that stands amongst the first of the land where pupils have gone forth to throw a glamour on the industrial and social life of the country.

"But the brightest gems in the cluster of north Main street is the loyal devout men and women where Catholicity has been the salt of this community.

My Prayer Is Heard.

"My one constant prayer of seventeen years has been 'Give them O Lord, health and success.' 'Let them glorify Thy name in frequent communion.' Has that prayer been heard? Oh, yes, we have had fewer deaths and less sickness than any parish our size in Ohio. We have had more communions than any church in the archdiocese, considering our numbers. As for good luck, you will find more solid industrial strength in Marion than the average town of the state, less poverty and the best dressed men and women in Ohio.

"All this has not come by chance, an ever shadowing providence has blessed us and our people and if a larger means of success has come to us it is because we have merited it by our clean lives and our elevated morals.

"For myself I have not but fears and heartfelt gratitude to offer you going away. Every fiber of my heart is entwined about the altars of St. Mary's and the hearts of its good people."

"And what can I say of this noble assistant of mine who has so nobly stood by me in all my work, has been so patient in my human infirmities, has taken such a lively interest in the young people of the parish. His kindness to the aged, sick and infirm will be remembered as long as there is fidelity in manhood.

"Farewell to you daughters of St Vincent who worked so long and close with me during all these years. To you my church wardens, my comfort and support in carrying the burden, and you dear friends, men, women and children of St. Mary's in the words of my dear Lord, if I have done you any good say a little prayer for me, if in a thoughtless moment I bruise your sensibilities then forgive me."

Dr Carl W. Sawyer in expressing the sentiments of the citizens of the city expressed the hope that Rev. Father Denning would always regard Marion as his home and that he would some time return. "We are not so narrow, so small that our wishes will stand in the way of your welfare and we are glad to send you out to the world that you may give them what you have given us," he said.

Try To Live Up to Example.

In presenting the gift from the members of St. Mary's parish the chairman assured Father Denning that the money could not express what they would wish. The cane he said represented loyalty, wealth of good wishes and an expression of the memory which would always remain with the people. A part of Dr Sawyer's farewell follows.

"We shall miss you, your advice consolation and help, but we shall try our best to live up to the example you have set us. We wish you health, happiness and wealth.

"Marion is proud of its sons it has sent to meet the big problems and as they go one by one we feel sad and yet happy. We know you will make good, we have no fear of that, the fear is that we may not make good so that you may be proud of us. We are pleased to loan you to our government; loaned I hope it may be. Remember that here your really work was done; here are those who love you most, honor and respect you as belonging to an order of human beings which knows no distinction and has nothing but the love of mankind in his heart. In our association with you we have found you a man, a true, honorable, honest, upright man's man."

Letter from Dr. McAfee.

A letter was read from Dr. T. H. McAfee, pastor of Trinity Baptist church, who was unable to attend the program, in which he expressed his congratulations and best wishes to Rev. Father Denning, and spoke of the pleasant associations of the past few years.

Rev. M. L. Buckley spoke the benediction after which the audience sang "America." Following the program those present were given an opportunity to say goodb, to Rev. Father Denning.

Why March is Most Dangerous

March is the most dangerous month of the year because the change of season is more than a good many systems can stand. Too often it is true that the sick "last only till spring." But if the system is fortified, if the impurities are driven from the blood, and the nerve tissues fed with wholesome and strength-giving food medicine, there is no danger in the change of seasons. Father John's Medicine is invaluable as a tonic in the spring. It strengthens the system and drives out the poisonous waste matter—builds up the body. It is this power that has made it so successful in treating colds and throat troubles. No weakening stimulants, morphine or other dangerous drugs.—Adv.

Mrs. John H. Guthery Is Re-Elected President.

The following chairmen were chosen for the standing committees:

Pasters; memorial, Miss Rose Rosenberg; patroness, Mrs. E. H. Bindley; music, Mrs. Asa Queen; art, Mrs. O. I. Clevenger, and parliamentarain, Mrs. W. H. Hinklin.

Community Singing.

The meeting yesterday afternoon was opened with community singing led by Mrs. Stewart R. Vermillion, with Mrs. Asa Queen at the piano. A pleasing musical program was rendered, opening with two vocal solos, "The Summer Wind," J. W. Beschoff, and "My Dear," Mary Turner Salter, sung by Mrs. Vermillion, accompanied by Miss Grace Cooper. Mrs. James C. Woods contributed a piano number, "Killarney," from M. W. Balse's "Innisfallen."

The federation voted to supply $30 a month for nutrition work at the Silver street school building for the remainder of the school year.

The treasurer reported the receipt of $50 for the federation building fund from the Round Table, Three Arts and Sesame clubs.

Vote of thanks were extended the session of the First Presbyterian church for the use of the church for the federation's patroness party last week; the Baker Music company for services donated and Mrs. John D. Sage, of Cincinnati, for her splendid musical numbers.

Reviews Year Book.

Mrs. W. N. Harder gave a brief review of the new state federation year books and reported that the central district conference will be held at Westerville April 25 and 26. All clubs were urged to send delegates to this meeting.

The federation voted to establish headquarters during centennial week and a committee composed of Mrs. E. H. Bindley, Mrs. W. N. Harder and Mrs. Lewis Uhl was appointed to secure a suitable location.

Mrs. W. H. Hinklin, chairman of the committee to go before the council in behalf of the library, reported that the members of the committee had called upon the city auditor and ascertained the amount of money paid for running the library the last three years and the budget for the first half of this year. She also reported that the committee held a conference with the librarians and interviewed the different members of the council and the city solicitor before attending the council meeting February 27, and that no definite results could be reported at this time, but recommended the continuance of the committee for a longer time.

The next meeting will be held the first Tuesday in April.

Card of Thanks.

It is with sincere appreciation that we recall the many kind deeds bestowed upon us by our friends and neighbors in our late bereavement. Especially do we wish to express our thanks for the many floral gifts; to every one who offered their cars; to all who helped in a general way or spoke a word of sympathy. Mrs. Phebe J. Twigg and Family.—Adv. 1-c

A Bit of Poetry True to Lite

A man and a maid upon marriage bent,
Were discussing the cost, including high rent.
It is certainly expensive, the young lady cried,
As down to Schoenberger's store they hied.
First, a beautiful "Tapestry Suite" took her eye,
Which the clerk insisted was surely some buy.
Then a "Library Table," a "Lamp" and a "Rug,"
Were added to make their parlor quite snug.
A "Dining Room Suite" was next on the list,
While the bride looked sweet enough to be kissed.
It's handsome, she cried, to her young lord,
But really it's more than we can afford.
Oh no, he said, as he looked at the floor,
Such reasonable prices I never saw before.
Next the "Bed Room Suites" were inspected,
A nice period suite is what they selected.
And now for the kitchen the man and maid sought,
A "Combination Range" and "Cabinet" they bought.
And nice "Linoleum" to cover the floor,
And now she said there's one thing more.
A "Washing Machine" I saw demonstrated,
It was an "Easy" and I was so elated.
I must have one of those to wash your shirt,
For, it is the only one, to take out the dirt.
As they left the store, they cried in glee,
Such wonderful prices, we never did see,
And such courteous treatment we'll never forget
And we'll recommend Schoenberger's to all friends, you bet.

Let's be fair to the movie people. Stop and consider for a moment and you will be amazed at the number whose names have not been mentioned in either the Arbuckle or the Taylor case.

If there is anything in these hot lunches for school children which so many cities are providing, as the authorities tell us there is, what a race of physical and mental giants we will have become a decade or two hence!

It begins to look as though the revelations promised by the sleuths in the Taylor case are of the variety revealing the past of the victim, but throwing no light on the presence of his murderer.

About the only apparent objection to the four-power treaty comes from those who are opposed to any treaty looking to peace and those who are opposed to any treaty save the Versailles treaty which has all the earmarks of one looking the other way.

The greatest obstacle in the way of enforcement of prohibition is that so many people who voted for it did so with the feeling that its regulations were to apply chiefly to the other fellow.

Unless the government soon begins to enforce the restrictions surrounding senatorial franks, it's hard to see any hope ahead for the postoffice department to become self-supporting so long as Senator France continues to work his propaganda.

Despite all the praise Minnesota is unloading on her model penitentiary, it's hardly probable that it will appeal to the better class of Minnesotans as a place of sojourn.

The Cincinnati Enquirer intimates that the bootleggers are the chief supporters of the Anti-Saloon league. Rot and nonsense! They may be the chief beneficiaries, but we utterly refuse to believe that a bootlegger ever gives support to anything.

LESS BLINDNESS.

The census of 1920 is disclosing many interesting facts concerning the American people, some gratifying, some depressing. Among the encouraging figures given out are those relating to blindness. They show a marked falling-off in the number of sightless persons in the country, and this in the face of an increase in population. There were 52,617 blind people in the United States in 1920, ten years before there were 57,272.

Now it was not just a freak of chance that the number declined. Blindness is not an altogether uncontrollable thing, we are not wholly powerless to prevent it. On the contrary, it could have been averted in a simple way in the case of many of those afflicted by it if those who had the care of them had only known how. And the reason why there was a lessening in the number of the blind during the ten-year period is because the people are learning the way to prevent it.

A large proportion of the blind lose their sight as babies. As new-born infants they are afflicted with a disease of the eyes which, if not promptly treated, will cause them to lose the use of them. Happily there is a sure way to cure the disease: a drop or two of the curative agent will save the eyes. As education spreads the remedy is being applied more and more with the gratifying result noted.

That blindness and ignorance go hand in hand is revealed by the fact that there are more sightless persons among those with limited education than among the more enlightened. There are about 200 blind per 100,000 of population among the Indians, sixty per 100,000 among the negroes, and 48.2 per 100,000 white persons.

As public knowledge is more widely diffused we may confidently look for a still further falling off in the number of blind.

A present trouble with the melting pot seems to be that the proportion of dross to good metal is far too high.

Something tells us that a lot of the people out in Hollywood never came upon that passage in the Good book about evil communications corrupting good manners.

To some people, apparently, the soldier bonus is considered less a means of showing appreciation of the soldier boys than a way to bring back beer and wine.

A LINE OF BANK PUBLICITY.

A week or so ago a New Jersey man, wintering in Florida, was fleeced out of $75,000 by a gang of swindlers. The money represented the savings of a life-time, and was drawn from a bank in order that it might be turned over to the thieves.

A few days later the newspapers told of a similar case in which a resident of Ohio narrowly escaped the loss of $15,000, also drawn from a bank, under similar circumstances.

A large part of the money recently lost in the failure of a string of bucketshops had previously reposed safely in banking institutions.

If we were in the banking business, we think we should find in these and similar news items material for interesting and business-producing advertising.

Probably not one cent of the money which passes into the hands of swindlers and shady stock-brokerage houses would be lost if the owners were to take the very simple precaution of consulting their bankers before investing in get-rich-quick enterprises and worthless "securities."

It is part of the business of bankers to advise their clients about such matters.

This part of the banking business ought to be more widely advertised in the newspapers.

Is it not to the interest of reputable financial houses to prevent the public from being fleeced by unscrupulous jugglers of other people's money, to the end that the funds now wasted should be wisely and safely employed? And is there any better way to accomplish this than by helpful and constructive newspaper advertising?

A MATTER OF GOOD FAITH.

That there would be found those to criticize the works of the Washington conference every one knew. That the four-power Pacific pact would draw the fire was also fairly certain. But the country must bear in mind one important fact in connection with that and all the other results of the conference.

Every treaty, every agreement, every resolution, every declaration is based on good faith. The good faith of every signatory nation is explicitly implied by that signature. The United States, through its delegation, has interpreted in the conference each of these documents as it understands them. This interpretation is on record; it expressly defines the extent to which the United States is interested in each phase of the problems touched by the treaties.

The treaties having not time but good faith as the essence of the contracts, and the United States having left no room for misunderstanding as to the basis on which she has committed herself to those agreements, any violation of that good faith, including any wilful misinterpretation of the things on which this country has clearly expressed its position, would release this country automatically from adherence.

Any one of the treaties is broken directly its essential elements or any one of them is flouted. The essential element of all of them is good faith.

A "PAY-AS-YOU-GO" POLICY.

A "pay-as-you-go" policy in school financing is advocated by Mark L. Thompson, former president of the board of education in Cleveland. That would be a fine thing, not only in school financing, but in all financing.

Mr. Thompson says school board members ought to go over the schools "with a fine tooth comb" and "trim expenditures wherever possible." Then he observes.

"Put your emphasis upon your teachers' salaries, for they are the people who must do the work. If you do that and take the people into your confidence so that they may know exactly what you are doing, then when you strike for money you will get it in abundance."

People generally are sick of useless taxation and future proposals to levy more taxes necessarily must carry a strong appeal. The proposition must be for something absolutely necessary.

A "pay-as-you-go policy can be enforced by the people.

SAVING OF TIME ON RAILROADS.

For many years the Big Four railroad has operated the two-mile line owned by the municipality of Mt. Gilead. The municipally owned railroad connects Mt. Gilead and Edison. Now, if the proposed plans of the Big Four are carried out, Mt. Gilead, after a lapse of fifty years, is again to become a stopping point on the main line between Columbus and Galion.

Today Mt. Gilead is two and two-tenths miles east of this main line. Delaware is to lose where Mt. Gilead gains. Half a century ago the main line went through Mt. Gilead. Then the route was changed. Now it is to be changed back to the old route, according to the rumors being made.

Delaware will be removed about two miles from the Big Four railroad. About two years ago the Classical City suffered the loss of the Big Four shops which were moved to Bellefontaine, and now the town practically is to be eliminated from the Big Four altogether.

As near as possible it is proposed to operate the new line over the roadbed of the old route of fifty years ago. Faster time is the answer. By coming back to the old route, the Big Four will have a much straighter route between Columbus and Galion, sharp curves being eliminated at St. Jaines and Delaware. The Big Four, which has the Mt. Gilead line under lease, operates three trains daily between the Morrow county seat and Edison. This expense of operating these three trains will, of course, be done away with by the changing of the route. But it is not the expense entailed in maintaining the operation of the Mt. Gilead-Edison short line so much that caused the Big Four to plan for changing the route; it's wholly a time-saving and money-saving proposition combined all along the line with the emphasis put on the time.

Time, not especially speed, railroads strive for as a goal. Any route, any method to obtain that goal! That is the big appeal to all railroad owners in these days of restless, vigorous operation in their capacity to serve a traveling public that demands this time saving.

LIFE'S VAUDEVILLE.

[By Dr. James Ball Naylor.]

THINKING.

"Though man a thinking being is defined,
Few use the grand prerogative of mind.
How few think justly of the thinking few—
How many never think, who think they do."

Are you really a thinker?

Do you use your own mind to formulate your own thoughts, opinions, ideas and ideals?

Or do you accept and appropriate all these things ready-made—as you get and wear clothing?

The brain should be a workshop—not a warehouse for the storage of finished products, not a toolhouse to receive and contain idle and useless implements.

It should be a workshop—furnished with tools and raw materials, to be sure; but the tools should be used frequently, the raw materials should always be undergoing the processes of manufacture.

And then the finished products should go out to the world.

There's a market for them, if they're worthy.

They shouldn't be left stored in the head—where they'll prove a hindrance to further mental activities, and where they'll grow rusty or musty, shopworn and ill-favored.

Are you a thinker—a real thinker?

All human beings think they are thinkers; but comparatively few of them are.

The real business man, the real professional man, is a thinker.

He has to be—if he is successful.

He can not be successful otherwise.

You think that most of the products, manufactured products, of the world are made in great factories?

They are not; they are made in little shops—the little shops "above the ears of men."

The men who do big things—are the men who think out big things.

And how do they think—when do they think? While they are busy with the daily grind?

No—not as a rule.

Some of them go home and to bed—and lie awake and think.

Others take long walks—and think while they're walking.

Others have still other plans and methods.

Few good thinkers are able to think their best when busily engaged; nearly all require solitude, quietude.

A paper tells of one New York business man who stays away from his office, stays close at home, and by himself, when he has a knotty business problem to think out. A friend dropped into this business man's office and found his desk deserted:

'Where's Joe?" he demanded.

"Home," said the chief clerk.

'Sick!" asked the friend.

"No," said the clerk, "thinking."

And then the clerk went on to explain how this business man, about every two weeks, staid at home a day to think out his projects and plans—sitting alone for hours and thinking, thinking, thinking.

Are you a real thinker?

SOCIETY

With a most attractive setting as a background for the beautiful colonial costumes worn by those appearing on the program, the Lecture-Recital club's American costume recital last evening was one of the most pleasing of its many musical entertainments this winter.

The stage of the Central Junior High-school building was decorated to represent a room of the colonial times and quaint furniture of that period was arranged with special care, to carry out the complete idea of those times. There was the historic spinning wheel, the old-fashioned fire place on the mantel of which was arranged dishes of that period; the colonial desk and chairs. Spread over the floor were braided rag rugs, and about the rooms were tallow candles.

There was not a detail left undone in the furnishings nor in the handsome colonial costumes of the participants. Each one of those taking part in the program wore dresses of different colors and powdered hair, and during the entire evening the quartet remained upon the stage, their pretty costumes giving an added touch of the 'olden times" to the scene.

The program given was excellent each one singing or playing the American music in a most creditable manner.

The quartet, composed of Mrs W. D. Clark, Mrs. George Gretzer, Mrs Karl Schell and Mrs. Emma Voorhees, opened the program with three songs, "Old Kentucky Home," and "Old Black Joe," by Foster, and "Carry Me Back to Old Virginny," by Bland, and then Mrs. H. K Mouser played "Romance," by LaForge; "Deep River," Burleigh, transcribed by Coleridge-Taylor, and "Dance of the Dryads," by MacDowell.

Mrs. David Walter Evans sang Negro spirituals, "Run, Mary Run," by Gruion; "Lazy Song" by Corrine Moore Lawson, and "Oh, Didn't It Rain," by Burleigh, and she was followed by two numbers by the quartet, "I Hear a Thrush at Eve," by Cadman, and "Lassie O' Mine," Walt.

Mrs. Mouser again played, favoring with "Prelude Arabesque," by Rogers; "Improvisation," by MacFadyen, and "Hungarian Etude No 12," by MacDowell, and Mrs. Evans sang several numbers from modern American composers They were "Joy of Spring," by Woodman, "Cradle Song," by MacFadyen; "Call Me No More," by Cadman, and "The Lilac Tree," by Gartlan.

The program was closed with the singing of "The Star Spangled Banner" by the audience.

Miss Mildred Baker was accompanist for the quartet.

Announcement was made of the Olive Kline concert at the Grand theater March 30 under the auspices of the Lecture-Recital club The club will meet again a week from next Monday.

After that the school board appropriated money and he was employed as drawing instructor.

TREATY DEFEAT BECKONS WAR

to the teeth and looking always to wars as inseparable from the existence of mankind?

"If we can not do this, then no one can and the clouds of war will again settle heavily over the future of civilization. The United States has never yet permitted failure or defeat to be written in her history. She will not permit it now. Under her lead a beginning has been made to secure the world's peace in the coming years. Let us not blight or wither this hope."

WILSON JOINS TREATY FOES

and are the causes of armament and war, for one alliance leads to another.

Sixth—Borah is also opposed to alliances because they are "destructive of the foreign policies as enunciated by George Washington."

Hence Borah and Wilson find themselves standing on common ground with regard to the four-power treaty.

The existence of the Wilson letter created a sensation when it became known at the capitol today as the senate resumed consideration of the pact. Borah, the most "irreconcilable" of all the irreconcilables" in the league fight, has found common ground on which to stand with the father of the league.

"International policies make strange bedfellows,' was a frequently heard remark.

The Wilson letter did not greatly surprise either Lodge or Underwood. It was stated that they had been aware for some time that the "Wilson influence" was working against the treaty and they welcomed bringing the fight into the open. Both were still confident that ratification will be had by a narrow margin.

First He Has Written.

The letter from S street, the first so far as is known, that the former president has written, was on especial significance to Underwood. It brought the realization that all of the influence of the former administration has been thrown against his titular leadership of his party in the senate.

Underwood is counting on at least eight or nine Democratic votes, besides his own, to provide the votes necessary to ratification. These are Broussard and Ransdell, of Louisiana; Pomerene, of Ohio; Fletcher and Trammell, of Florida; Myers, of Montana; Kendrick, of Wyoming; Stanley, of Kentucky; Dial and probably Smith, of South Carolina.

Appearances today, however, gave rise to uncertainty that these would be counted on definitely. It was conceded on both sides that the vote on ratification probably would be extremely close but Republican leaders said they did not care how close so long as ratification was accomplished.

helpful. The secretary of the treasury agreed with me that it would be altogether desirable if you could arrange to make a similar trip in the near future. If you find this possible, I shall be glad to receive from you, upon your return, a full report regarding the present situation in the agricultural and livestock sections.

"I would like to have in the report such information as you conveniently can give me concerning the dealings of the corporation with the various cooperative marketing organizations.

"The fact that the corporation has been able to conduct very large financial operations with these associations on a sound basis suggests large possibilities for the expanded usefulness of this type of agricultural organization. I would be glad to have whatever information you can give me that will be calculated to enlighten the way to bringing about such increased effectiveness.

"Most sincerely yours,

"Warren G. Harding."

COUNTY SUNDAY-SCHOOL CONFERENCE CONVENES

Seventy-Five Register at Sessions This Morning.

TO ELECT OFFICERS LATE THIS AFTERNOON

Sessions Will Close with Banquet at Central Christian Church Tonight.

About seventy-five representatives of the Sunday schools of Waldo, Morral, Tiffin Avenue Memorial Baptist, Trinity Baptist, Calvary Evangelical, First Presbyterian and Grand Prairie township registered this morning for the annual county Young People's conference which opened at the Central Christian church. Representatives from other churches registered at the afternoon session.

The morning was given to the reports of the year's work by the county presidents and talks were given by the state presidents, Miss Alice L. May and Walter C. Moore, of Columbus, on the theme of the conference, "Loyalty."

Give Demonstrations.

"The Organized Department" was the subject of a talk at the afternoon session by the boys' state president, Walter C. Moore, after which separate sessions were held and demonstrations of a Sunday morning session of the Sunday school were given in charge of the superintendents Mrs. Lewis Uhl and Marshall Pulsford.

Talks on "Loyalty to God's Great Plan of Development" were given by representatives from the various churches. "The House I Live In," was discussed by Waldo, "The Mind God Gave Me," Green Camp, "The Social Talents I Possess," Morral; "My Religious Nature," Caledonia, "The Loyalty to the Great Leader," Mrs. C. G. Ritzler of Green Camp, and C. Z. Zachman. Late this afternoon a demonstration of through-the-week activities was given. Vocal solos were contributed by Eldon Smith, of Tiffin and Loran Griffith, of Prospect, and Walberg Brown played a violin number. Officers were elected late this afternoon.

A banquet will be served this evening with Hugh Diamond, of Galion, as the principal speaker. Officers will be installed at the evening session and talks will be given by the boys and girls who attended the international training camp at Geneva last summer.

READS PAPER ON SOCIALIZING MEDICINE

Dr. D. O. Weeks Gives Paper at Medical Meeting.

"Shall We Socialize Medicine" was the subject of a paper read at a well-attended meeting of the Marion County Medical society Tuesday evening by Dr. D. O. Weeks. The meeting was held at the library and Dr. Weeks read the paper by special request of the society.

In the paper Dr. Weeks presented a synopsis of opposition on the part of the medical fraternity to propaganda for what was termed socializing medicine by foundation control of "full time" medical education by lay board domination and the "Federated Soup" hospital, socialized state medicine, subsidized county health centers and hospitals under political or hospital control, legislative dictation of therapeutics and free and demoralization of medical standards by the expansion of cults. These movements were characterized as being a menace to the medical profession.

Interesting cases encountered during the month were reported by Drs. Tyler Brickley, Newhouse and Mahla and discussed by those present.

Did you ever notice how many slang words are used when referring to "Head," like these:
Dome, Pate,
Your Top, Bean?
No? Well, anyhow, what we want to convey is that "you are way out ahead" when you have one of our "Berg Hats"
on your dome.
Excuse the slang,
we mean head.
And should any one
ask within your hearing about the latest in hats,
just point any one of your fingers,
or the whole hand,
for that matter,
to our Berg Hat and your hand is good and the whole world will say the hat is
